WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1867.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1894.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, MAY 28, 1907

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

DID IT EVER OCCUR TO YOU?

When I see a youth with his pants turned up and his beautiful socks on view, And over one eye perched a little round hat, with a ribbon of red and blue, And the fourteen rings and seven pins that he got at the High School, Why, it strikes a chord, and I say: "Oh, Lord, was I ever that big a fool!"

When I see a youth with his gloves turned down and a cigarette stuck in his face, And a loud check coat and a horse-cloth vest and a half inch wide shoe lace, And a bunch of hair that hides his ears, and a tongue of senseless drool, Then I paw the grass as I say: "Oh, Lord, was I ever that big a fool!"

—Billy Dowless.

John Sanborn, Civil Engineer of Huntington, W. Va., was here yesterday in consultation with the Street Paving Committee.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

The Nineteenth Anniversary Meeting Sunday Night at Third Street M. E. Church a Success

The nineteenth anniversary of the Epworth League was observed at the Third Street M. E. Church Sunday evening.

The Pastor, Rev. G. W. Bunton, preached a splendid sermon, reviewing the history of the Epworth League and the reasons for its organization. He also spoke of the great work it was now doing among the young people and the great plans for its future usefulness.

At the close of the sermon he called the newly elected officers to the front and in a very impressive manner spoke the words inducting them into their offices for the coming year.

During the installation service he presented each officer with his compliments, a handsome Epworth League badge, which was a very agreeable surprise to them.

The new year opens very auspiciously, and with the splendid corps of officers, headed by such a faithful Pastor, a year full of usefulness and success seems assured.

NEW INFIRMARY

Crying Need of Suitable Buildings For Mason's Indigent Poor

At the last meeting of the Fiscal Court a committee was appointed for the purpose of viewing the landscape at the Infirmary grounds above the city and inquiring as to the advisableness of providing a new home for the county's indigent charges.

There is not much doubt but that the gentlemen composing the committee were of one mind—after an investigation as to the necessity of some action being taken in the matter.

The present quarters are inadequate in every essential particular in fulfilling the requirements for which they were intended.

The location is unsuitable on account of the overflow from the Ohio river; the buildings in which the unfortunate are housed are mere shacks and the sanitary condition of the whole outfit is the worst possible.

Mason county is a wealthy community, amply able to provide suitable and at least decent and healthful quarters for her dependents.

It is apparent that a sentiment in favor of a new Infirmary building is growing every day, and if the good people at large thoroughly understood and were conversant with the conditions of affairs as they really exist, there would be a perfect clamor for a change.

What is needed is an up-to-date building with all modern conveniences in which all can be housed under one roof—separated by wards as their condition may require.

The present Fiscal Court is an intelligent and fair-minded body, and it is hoped they will take up the matter at their next meeting and see that something is done in providing a new Infirmary building.

SEE how hard it was to secure a Jury to try JIM HARGIS and then just look how easy he was acquitted. It pays to be a big power in Democratic politics in old Kentucky.

In the coming Democratic Presidential campaign the Hon. HENRY WATTERSON can be depended upon to furnish 'steen columns of "glittering generalities." Pretty to read, but about as practical as smoke. Why is it that nearly all Democrats are theorists?

FROM the ngly face FORAKER is making over the Ohio situation, somebody must have handed the Senator a lemon. Or maybe, he is not happy at TAFT's smiling mug rising over the Presidential horizon. At any rate, Mr. FORAKER is a very busy individual and from now on till next November he will be on the jump. These troubles have been piling up on him for quite a while.

WHAT with earthquakes, fire, graft, labor unions, and the Japs and Chinese, San Francisco is indeed in a woeful position and condition. But in spite of the warring elements and deals, steals and squeals of a Babel of antagonistic conditions, the Golden Gate City, continues to rise from her ashen bed and presents to the world an example of pluck and progress never equaled in history. Chicago's rebuilding after her fire was nothing like as phenomenal as San Francisco's, considering the adverse conditions hampering the latter city.

The Lexington Gazette wants to know what we shall do on Sunday. Why, go to Church like the rest of us Editors.

CHARLES M. SCHWAR the steel magnate, is said to be a nervous wreck over the vexation he encountered in the construction of his $3,500,000 mansion on Riverside Drive, New York. He offers the new residence for sale for $2,000,000. A man with the money that SCHWAR's got is a fool for indulging in brainstorms.

THE decision of the Court of Appeals in the Louisville election cases is good as far as it goes, but it don't go far enough. The fraudulently elected officials are ousted, 'tis true, but who takes their places? Why, Governor BECKHAM, to all intents and purposes. He will fill the offices with his heelers and henchmen. To carry out the eternal and paramount principle involved, and to obey the spirit of justice and the law, the Fusionists, who were defrauded of the offices to which they were entitled, should come into their own again and be seated. The decision of the Court that there was no election is not borne out by the facts. There was an election, and the men who are now declared to be holding their jobs by fraud, have enjoyed the usufruct and the emoluments of office for nearly two years. The Fusionists merely win a moral victory, while the thieves get away with the swag. But a half loaf is better than no bread; and, henceforth if the Courts will guarantee free and fair elections, no Republican will ever register a kick.

I felt tired and worn out nearly all the time. Upon hearing of the great things Cooper's New Discovery was doing for others afflicted as I was, I began to use it. ROLAND AND OLIVER

By S. E. KISER.

"Well, old man, I'm mighty glad to see you. When did you leave home?"

"Thursday morning, I came straight through. You're looking well."

"Yes, I'm feeling first rate. And you left Thursday morning? It seems an age since I came away."

"How long have you been here, now?"

"It'll be five years the 16th of next month."

"As long as that? How time flies. Let's see—you've never been back at all, have you?"

"No. I've been expecting every summer to be able to get away for a few weeks, but something has always happened to upset my plans. How is everybody, anyhow?"

"Oh, about the same. I suppose you know that Dave Simmons and his wife have parted?"

"No! Is that so? Well! What was the trouble?"

"Got tired of each other, I guess. Dave and Abbie Bramwell are to be married soon."

"Abbie Bramwell? Why, she married Jim Hewlett."

"Yes, but they were divorced over a year ago."

"The dickens, you say?"

"Tom Decker's wife was mentioned as a correspondent in their case."

"Fanny Decker—for heaven's sake! There wasn't any truth in it, was there?"

"I don't know. They kept it out of the papers. The Deckers are living apart, though."

"By George! What next? Arthur Creston and Madgo Burroughs were engaged to be married when I left. How are they getting along?"

"They lived together about a year and a half. She's Frank Wentworth's wife now."

"What! Well, I'm not so much surprised at that. She and Arthur might have known that they'd never get along together. What happened to Frank's first wife? Is she dead?"

"No, she got a divorce and went on the stage. They say she's doing pretty well. Of course, you've heard about Billy Homenway and his wife?"

"They're not divorced, are they?"

"I should say they were. She was married to Fred Reburn last fall, and they say Billy and Fred's former wife, who, you remember, was Bertha Steele, are going to try their fortunes together."

"Go on! You don't mean it? How is your—ah—how is Sam Davis, getting along? It seems to me that I heard somewhere not long ago that he had lost most of his money."

"He's all right again. I guess he did drop a lot of it speculating, but he had investments that turned out very well, so he isn't hard up, by any means. He married Abbie Willard after she and Joe were divorced."

"Joe and Abbie Willard divorced? Whatever made them separate? They were the last people on earth that I'd have expected to have trouble."

"I guess it was Joe's fault. He became pretty gay after he got that money from his grandfather."

"Who's he going to marry?"

"He and Helen Bassett have been married for nearly a year."

"Helen Bassett?"

"Yes. Dick Bassett's wife, you know. Dick let her get a divorce, and Joe Willard is said to have given him $20,000. I don't know how true it is."

"Things seem to have been happening since I left. How is your—I mean, how are the Spencers getting along?"

"Do you mean Ed Spencer? He and his wife got divorced and she and Dick Bassett have since been married. They say Ed and Wallace Harper's former wife are likely to pair off before long."

"Is Wallace dead?"

"Hardly. He's very much alive. He and Alice Carter were married three weeks ago."

"Who is Alice Carter?"

"Why, you must know her. She was Johnny Booth's first wife. Resumed her maiden name after their divorce."

"Great Scott! The Johnny Booths, too! How is your—ah—and so Johnny's married again, too?"

"Yes. He married Maud Rankin. There was a good deal of talk about him and her before Johnny and Alice separated."

"There was, eh? How is your—I—that is—your traveling alone?"

"No. My wife's with me. How is your—ah—do you like it here?"

"Yes, first rate. I didn't at the start, but I've become acquainted now, and things have been coming my way pretty regularly lately, so I'm very well satisfied. I'd like to have you and your wife come out to the house and see us. Can't you come this evening?"

"It's mighty nice of you to ask us out. I'll be glad to go, and I think my wife will appreciate it, too. Does your wife like it here?"

"Oh, yes; you couldn't get her to live anywhere else. She was born and reared here, you know. All her people and her friends live here, and—"

"Then you—that is—I hadn't heard—"

"Yes. It was two years ago. Of course, I'd have felt differently about it if we'd had any children, but—oh, well, that's all past now. I'm glad you brought your wife with you. It'll be a pleasure to hear her cheery laugh again. You're here on business principally, I suppose?"

"No, we—I guess you don't quite understand. We are here on our wedding trip."—Chicago Record-Herald.

HERE'S YOUR PROHIBITION

How It Works Out in "Bleeding Kansas"—The Law Everywhere a Mockery and a Joke.

A press dispatch from Topeka, Kansas, says: The citizens of Kansas are certainly in a serious way. The records of the Kansas drug stores show an alarming condition.

Thousands of Kansans who have a gnawing thirst for spirituous liquors, by their affidavits, prove beyond question that an epidemic of lunacy and indigestion prevails throughout the State.

This is all due to the fact that saloons have been closed and brewers and wholesale liquor dealers driven from the State.

But the Kansas drug store is here in all its glory. On a par with its profits from the sale of red liquor is the income from the sale of hip-pocket flasks turned out by the wine glass factories in Kansas.

The record of all those who pass sleepless nights and who eat and drink, cake, pigs' feet, tripe, wieners, cream-puffs, doughnuts, hot biscuits and hot bread, is on file with the Probate Court.

This list is public, but strange to say, patent medicine venders and sleep potion manufacturers give little or no attention to it, because each person whose name is there has his own particular medicine.

It is the same in all cases—beer or whiskey. No liquor may be sold at a drugstore unless the purchaser signs a certificate that the beverage is for medicinal purposes and he must designate the ailment with which he is suffering. These certificates are filed monthly.

This rule applies to beer as well as whiskey. "Stomach trouble" is the usual complaint given when a person needs or desires whiskey.

Since April 16 the cases of insomnia and indigestion have shown their greatest increase. Before that only a few hundred certificates of liquor and beer purchased were filed a month.

Now about 14,000 certificates are filed every thirty days.

THE LEDGER OFFICE AS A MATRIMONIAL BUREAU.

The Public Ledger Printery is getting quite a reputation as a matrimonial center. In making a complimentary announcement of the Bright-Ruark event, our esteemed friend The Bulletin, says—

"Here's hoping the union of types will prove a happy and congenial one until the last forms go to press."

"This is the third Ledger employee to enter the matrimonial state within a few weeks, which go to show what a busy-body cupid has been in that quarter recently."

Look a "leedle out," Brother Attorney. The fever is liable to break fourth at any time in The Bulletin office.

TAFT'S LAUGHTER

Shakes The Capitol and Rattles the Slat in the War Department.

Secretary Taft and Justice John M. Harlan, of the United States Supreme Court, are great friends. The other day the veteran jurist called on the Secretary at his office in the War Department. They swapped yarns and the Judge's was so funny that the Secretary's laughter could be heard from one end to the other of the great building. It is even said that it disturbed the equilibrium of the tapers in the Y. M. C. A. howling alleys across the street, and that the army engineers had to examine the foundation of the department to see if it remained sound. Just as the Judge was about to leave the Secretary remembered a story. He joined in the laughter over it a minute later. Clerks rushed from their desks into the corridors, fearing an earthquake, and one veteran employee who is so deaf that he had not heard a sound for thirty years, aroused himself and asked what warship that was firing a salute.

Justice Harlan finally left the Secretary's office holding his sides. Secretary Taft was still smiling fifteen minutes later when he received several newspaper correspondents. When asked about the uproar shortly before, Judge Taft said:

"Harlan was just telling me a story. I should like to repeat it, but could not do it justice. You will have to appeal to the Supreme Court."

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. JIM HARGIS Escapes Some More—Judge Redwine Refused to Try the Case and the Farce Goes On.

Turn the villain loose, and save money and cease making a farce of the law.

When the trial of Judge James Hargis, his brother, Elbert Hargis, former Sheriff Ed. Callahan, Bill Britton, John Abner and John Smith, charged with the murder of Dr. B. D. Cox in Breathitt county, was called at Sandy Hook, Elliott county, yesterday, Judge M. M. Redwine refused to preside.

Gov. Beckham must appoint a special judge.

Redwine said that the cases had been transferred without his knowledge or consent, and because of certain statements in the press of the State he felt it would be impossible for him to preside.

The cases will be continued to October, but if the special judge requests, he can call a special term during the summer.

Judge Redwine ordered the clerk to certify the fact of his vacating the bench to Gov. Beckham at the earliest possible moment.

A telegram from Sandy Hook says that Deputy Circuit Clerk J. W. Sparks has been hurried to Frankfort with instructions from Judge Hargis and Attorney Young to get a commission from Gov. Beckham for Carnes or some other special judge.

It is reported that the defense will ask that the defendants all be dismissed, if prosecution attorneys are not present when the case is called.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation

For months Mayville readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit. A. W. McClanahan of A. W. and B. P. McClanahan, grocers, at 121 Second street, Mayville, Ky., says:

"I can endorse Doan's Kidney Pills more heartily today than I did five years ago when I told the Mayville people that this medicine had cured me of severe kidney trouble and backache that had bothered me for twenty years and seemed to be growing worse all the time. I repeat that I can more confidently recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today than I did in that testimonial because my cure has been permanent and I have had no kidney trouble for nearly five years. As proof that I am a firm believer in Doan's Kidney Pills I will be only too pleased to reiterate the above to anyone who may inquire."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-McIlhenn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
